City Engineering: Active Transportation Board discussion. Fletcher Lacock from the City of Sioux Falls Planning Department attended the meeting to let us know that the Ordinance will be taken to City Council for the first reading on October 11, 2022, second reading will be October 17, 2022, to enact the Active Transportation Board. With this action there would be a Resolution to repeal PATH and it would become one of three sub-committees under the Active Transportation Board. It would be a citizen led seven member board. PATH would continue in the same capacity as it is now. Nan Baker would like to have in the by-laws that a
