VI. NEW BUSINESS

- Police Department: School Zone Enforcement Week is scheduled August 22 to August 26 from 7 to 5:30 p.m. Lt. Miller confirmed there would be a news briefing and public announcements made a week prior. Officers will be coordinating with school principals to review and implement parking and student drop off locations.

- City Engineering: City Engineering is directing the contractor performing the City's annual stop bar and crosswalk painting contract to complete the designated school crosswalks. The list of schools having their crosswalks re-painted or touched up are as follows: Christ the King, Jefferson, Laura Wilder, Hawthorne, Hayward, Horace Mann, John Harris, Holy Spirit, JFK, Laura B., Longfellow, Lowell, Oscar Howe, St. Michael, Robert Frost, Rosa Parks, and Terry Redlin.

Heath stated City Engineering's goal is to possibly install a traffic signal at Panama Street and S. Sertoma Avenue the summer of 2012 to alleviate the problems being experienced by the Roosevelt High School students crossing at this location.

- Private Schools: No report
- Public Schools: Susan Foster requested police assistance in slowing down the traffic on Six Mile Road for Fred Assam Elementary.
